CEE Investor Intentions Survey 2024

REPORT CBRE RESEARCH FEBRUARY 2024

Creating Resilience European Logistics Occupier Survey 2024

Summary

01 Purchasers and Sellers

Over half of the investors who are interested in CEE believe that investment activity will be markedly increase in coming 6-12 months. Third of them plans more acquisition this year than last year.

02 Fears and Intentions

Apart from the financial environment, the mismatch between buyers and sellers' expectations creates the biggest challenge for any deal in 2024. Investors still face higher lending costs and longer approval processes. They are more concerned about global politics than economic outlook in the region.

Asset Class Preferences

Investors favor I&L assets, which are at the same time one of the two most stable sectors (besides hotels) in terms of pricing. More discounts are expected of office and retail assets. Residential investment opportunities seem interesting to a growing share of CEE investors.

O4 Countries and Capitals

Surveyed investors indicated Poland as the 3rd most lucrative investment destination in Europe, while Warsaw made to the TOP10 most desirable city to invest in. Czech Republic and Prague stand out as second most interesting investment target in the region – by a considerable margin to the rest.
